Technology is best when it brings kids together

Thank you

Thank you to Aldevron for their extremely generous donation of laptops and Macbooks. Tech4Kids' mission would not be possible if it were not for the community's support and charitable donations.

Donation

In the months of June and July, Tech4Kids has donated over 68 laptops to organizations to help children in our community have access to technology and an technological advantage.

The Sanneh Foundation, Kondial Kel International, and WIN-Liberia were a few of the recipient non-profit organizations.

We are abundantly grateful to make this happen with the help from volunteers and generous laptop donations.

"The world always looks brighter from behind a smile." Why we believe that when you put a smile out there you get a smile back. Here are our gratitude paints of little smiley faces on everyone that you have touched in our community and within our program Tech4Kids. Thank you again and again! To our sponsors, we acknowledge you all for your abiding support." - Precious Garpeh

"You know I can't legally tell who's life you impacted today. What I can tell you is there was tears, hope for their future, and overall glow to them. They even called their mom in tears to let them know they were receiving a computer from Tech4Kids. So thank you so much for making their day"

Humongous THANK YOU to Phone-n-Fix for their continued support in helping reload laptops and Macbooks. Did you know that they repair phones and tablets and are your local resource for premium used cell phones and accessories?
